NEVADA STATE JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1893.

ANNEXATION AND MISREPRESENTATION.

Wednesday, April 5, 1893, the following appeared in the JOURNAL:

"Utah desires to be admitted as a state. It has the necessary qualifications for statehood, though there is no fixed rule on the subject, politics, as a general thing, having more to do with the admission of a state than population or taxable property.

"Utah has an area of 84,970 square miles, and it had a population in 1890 of 207,905, an increase of 63,942 in ten years. Nevada has an area of 110,700 square miles and it had a population of 45,761 in 1890, a decrease of 16,405 in ten years.

"Eastern senators and representatives are averse to admitting silver producing states at present, as it increases the strength of the silver men in both houses of congress They are, therefore, desirous of annexing Utah to Nevada, there being no reasonable excuse for denying the territory statehood, as polygamy is no longer countenanced by the Mormon church There is also a desire to increase the population and taxable property of Nevada, and the most feasible and speedy method of accomplishing this result is by consolidating Utah and Nevada.

"As the people will be consulted as to their wishes on the proposed union of state and territory, the subject should be generally discussed. Senator Stewart, in a letter to the Virginia Chronicle, which was published in the JOURNAL last Sunday, expresses the opinion that if the people of Nevada thought so, it would be to their mutual advantage to consolidate. He says Senator Jones is also of that opinion, but neither have taken action in the matter, and Senator Stewart says he will not do so until he is advised as to what his constituents want.

"As the question is of great importance to Nevada, it should be generally discussed through the press or at public meetings, or both. The JOURNAL will give space in its columns to articles of reasonable length on the subject, whether for or against annexation. Much can be said on both sides The consolidation would give the state wealth and population, but it would also result in the removal of the capital to Salt Lake city or Ogden, and in leaving the western part of the state from 600 to 800 miles from the seat of government. The people of western Nevada might prefer annexation to California, with the eastern counties of which they have much in common, to becoming the tail end of a state with its head at the City of the Saints."

In the face of the above, which is a matter of record, not of opinion, the Gazette Publishing Company says of annexation

"It is being worked up by long headed, careful manipulators and will be consummated before the rank and file know of it unless the people wake up Not a paper in the state has called attention to it but the Gazette and we very much doubt if they do"

What does the Gazette Publishing Company expect to gain by such barefaced, malicious misrepresentation of its contemporaries? The subject was discussed by nearly every paper in the state three months ago, yet with brazen effrontery and unparalleled presumption upon the ignorance of the public, it asserts that it is the only paper in the state that has called attention to the annexation scheme. Perhaps, in extenuation of its ignorance, it may plead the "baby act," as the Gazette Publishing Company was not in existence last spring, but corporations, whether new or old, are not licensed to deliberately misrepresent others and plead ignorance as an excuse.

A BOMB IN THE GOLD CAMP.

The goldbugs in congress have repeatedly charged for lack of better argument that many senators and representatives who contend for free coinage are directly interested in silver mines This charge has been denied by nearly every prominent advocate of remonetization, but the gold men continue to reassert it. Senator Stewart repelled the charge on more than one occasion, and now, exasperated by its reiteration, he throws a bomb into the gold camp in the shape of a resolution to ascertain the number of senators who are stockholders in banking institutions. This has created consternation in the goldite ranks and fearing its effect they have postponed action upon it several times.

The most pronounced anti-silver men in both houses are known to be directors or stockholders in banks. Harter of Ohio, who aspires to the leadership of the gold men, is engaged in the banking business and is probably the agent of London or Hamburg capitalists who desire the United States to issue bonds. Senator Sherman is also said to have a few millions invested in bank stock and is anxious to have the government, with stacks of bullion stored in the treasury, increase the public debt and its gold reserve at the same time by issuing bonds.

The presumption is that delaying action on the Stewart resolution is for the purpose of giving Sherman and others opportunity to transfer their stock so that when questioned regarding their interest in banks they can deny having any and make it appear on the face of the record that their efforts to increase the public debt without adding a dollar to the money in circulation are purely patriotic.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

The Carson Appeal editorially prefers charges against the state university, which, whether true or false, will have a tendency to injure that institution. As these charges reflect on the board of regents, as well as the faculty, in justice to all concerned they should be investigated. The board of regents have the same authority in university affairs that school boards do in public school matters, and they cannot afford to let such charges pass unnoticed.

DEVOURED BY A BEAR.

Voorhees Determined to Press the Silver Repeal.

SENATOR DANIEL'S VIEWS.

Rio Janeiro Bombarded—One Woman Killed.

VOORHEES' OPINION.

He Thinks a Vote Will be Reached in Two Weeks.

WASHINGTON, September 14.—Senator Voorhees says he is still determined to press the repeal to as early a consideration as possible "It would, however, be necessary," he said, "to observe courtesies required by the traditions and rules of the senate, and I really believe by showing due regard to these points we shall be able to make greater progress than if we violated them. The senators who oppose the bill must soon come to see that we have been acting with exceptionaly liberality, and I am sure that sort of conduct will have its effect upon them. There is undoubedly scope yet left for considerable legitimate debate, and there are no means, were there a disposition, of pressing the question to a vote before every senator has had an opportunity to say what he may wish to say. We have not really consumed as much time in the discussion of this question as the country seems to think, and I have every reason to believe we shall be able to reach a vote in a comparative short time."

Pressed to say how long the time would be, he named two weeks as the limit of debate. After that, if speech-making continued it would indicate a purpose to fillibuster, and he did not believe that the tactics for simple delay could be long pursued; nor did he think there would be any disposition among the opponents to repeal, except, possibly, from senators of the silver-producing states to unnecessarily consume the time of the senate, and those senators could not expect to continue the contest long without the assistance of senators from other sections of the country.

In replying to the question as to how he expected to bring the matter to a close, Voorhees said that with legitimate speech-making and of the way the question would soon revolve itself into one of physical endurance, and expected soon to ask the senate to hold longer daily sessions, and, indeed, to continue them into the night. He thought this course would be justified after this week, and he would move in this direction and with this specific end in view within the next three or four days.

Asked what he thought would be the disposition of the senate to compromise on the line of the Faulkner amendment, Voorhees replied that he did not believe there would be any amendment to the bill, and he is of the opinion that the silver men would show greater strength in the vote in opposition to the straight repeal bill than upon any other proposition which would be brought before the senate in connection with present legislation.

REPEAL MEN COALESCING.

Administration Democrats Unite With Republicans.

WASHINGTON, September 14.—In the house of representatives, Buroughs, one of the Republican leaders, commenced fillibustering to prevent the report of the bill to repeal the Federal Elections law. On a call of the yeas and nays the Republicans refused to vote, as did also a number of administration Democrats, and the result was yeas, 4; nays, 100; no quorum. The administration Democrats are actively assisting the Republicans in an effort to stave off discussion on the Federal Elections bill and the silver Democrats are indignant.

Senator Daniel's Views.

WASHINGTON, September 14.—In the senate in opposition to the repeal bill, Senator Daniel of Virginia said he would attempt to demonstrate, as he was confident he could, that the world-wide monetary convulsion is due to three principal causes. First, the enormous increase of debt; second, the continuous and unprecedented fall in prices for over a quarter of a century; third, the contemporaneous destruction of bimetallic base of credit at the dictation of European money kings.

He said more money was needed and the repeal of the Sherman act would have a contrary effect. It would contract the currency by forty millions per annum. He favored a sound currency, every dollar of which would be maintained at par with every other dollar, and that it should consist of gold, silver and paper money payable in them.

Fire at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Washington, September 14.—Spokane's handsome City Hall building is in ruins. Shortly after 1 o'clock flames were seen to break out of the windows and in a few minutes the whole building was ablaze. By the time the fire department arrived on the scene the building was doomed and the firemen devoted their efforts to saving the adjoining property.

A LITTLE GIRL'S FATE.

Devoured by a Hungry Bear.

HELENA, Mont., September 14.—News comes from Midvale, a little town in the western part of the state, of the terrible fate of the little girl of J. W. Schultz. The infant was playing in the front yard when the mother looked out the front door and saw a bear approaching. She screamed and tried to frighten the bear away, but her efforts were of no avail. The bear caught the child with one paw and ran off into the woods. Calling the father and telling him what had happened, he immediately started after the bear and traced it through the woods quite a distance, but all he found was one limb of the child and parts of her clothing. This is the first instance in that section of a bear becoming so bold as to approach a house and carry off a child. It is thought the bear was driven to his boldness by hunger.

PILGRIMS TO MECCA.

Thousands of Them Died of Starvation.

TUNIS, September 14.—Of the 9,000 pilgrims that left here and other ports in May last for Mecca only one-half have returned, the others having fallen victims to cholera. Fully 12,000 friends and relatives met the returning pilgrims on their release from quarantine, and there were many heartrending demonstrations of grief by relatives of those who had succomed to the disease.

The survivors tell terrible tales of suffering. On June 24th 100,000 pilgrims were gathered on the sacred mount to hear the solemn address. Prior to their proceeding to Mecca many of the multitude were starving. The mount resembled a battlefield, being strewn with corpses of victims of the pestilence, among whom were lying hundreds of poor wretches who were dying of the dread disease.

Miribel's Successor.

PARIS, September 14.—General Lemonton de Boisdeffre has returned to Paris from the grand military maneuvers. His appointment as chief of the general staff of the army, on which he ranked next to the late General Miribel, will probably be announced within two days. He is one of the tacticians whom France has been nursing to lead her regenerated army. Unlike Miribel, he has never especially distinguished himself on the field of battle, and he has seen much less service than his late chief.

Telegraphic Notes.

Baby Ruth's sister is to be christened Esther, that being Mrs. Cleveland's choice of names.

The Navahoe, the American yacht, which contested with the Britannia for the Breton Reef cup at the Isle of Wight, has been awarded the prize.

Senator Vest emphatically denies the report circulated in New York that he would vote for unconditional repeal of the Sherman act. He denounces the report as a goldbug lie.

The Democrats opened the campaign at Newark, Ohio, yesterday. L. T. Neal, the Democratic candidate for governor, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience. He declared that the Sherman and McKinley acts were the cause of the financial trouble.

Senator Faulkner yesterday offered his amendment to the repeal bill. It provides for the coinage of silver bullion now in the treasury and the monthly purchase thereafter of sufficient silver to coin $3,000,000, which dollars with those now coined shall be a legal tender.

Governor Hogg of Texas has been requested to call a council of the governors of the silver states. The object is to suggest that such states pass a law that a silver dollar weighing one ounce be legal tender for the payment of debts, the mines to have the money coined in Mexico. Some lawyers say the plan is constitutional.

A horrible discovery has been accidentally made in Austria. Two women living in separate vallages in Bohemia have been arrested. They were engaged systematically in the business of murdering children whose parents desired to have them out of the way for any reason. They contracted to dispose of bodies effectually and guaranteed secresy. They did a thriving business at five florins per child.

WILLIAM PINNIGER, Druggist.

Rio Janeiro Bombarded.

WASHINGTON, September 14. –Secretary Gresham received the following from Minister Thompson at Rio: At 11 this morning the revolutionary forces bombarded the forts commanding the entrance to the harbor, and also the arsenal on the wharf in Center City. A few shells were thrown into the city and one woman was killed. Commercial telegrams are forbidden. The cruiser Charleston has not arrived. This dispatch practically disposes of the hopes of the navy department that the Charleston had reached Rio. It is now believed that she went direct to Montevideo without touching any Brazilian port.

General De Miribel, whose death resulted from injuries sustained by falling from his horse, is said to have been a soldier of great ability, upon whom France relied, in the event of war, more than upon any other officer in the army.

The sheriff of Nevada county, Cal., has put a stop to gambling in Truckee. This move on the part of the California sheriff will doubtless increase the sporting population of Reno. The sporting men of Truckee, however, say that times are to hard in the mountain town to gamble now.

The mercury went up to 94 degrees in the shade at Chicago yesterday and many persons at the fair grounds as well as in the city were prostrated.

Had the fire department been equipped with apparatus for throwing ropes to great heights or distances, such as are carried by all life saving stations, many lives could have been saved from the flames at the cold storage fire. Every man who escaped alive did so by a flimsy rope. With a proper gun or cannon a rope or numbers of them could have been shot up over the tower and made fast by the imprisoned men. The ropes can be rendered noncombustible. No new or expensive machinery would be required. At the life saving station at Jackson park could have been found hugo guns with endless coils of lifeline attached. The guns fire a heavy spear, which carries the lifeline out to wrecks, helpless boats and drowning men. Twenty such lifelines could have been fired up and over the burning tower. Every shot of the gun would have saved the life of a brave fireman.

With the high buildings in the business center such apparatus would be most valuable and could be carried on every hose cart. Individuals imprisoned in the tenth story, cut off from all escape, could be saved. A lance could be shot into the window and the rope made fast. Nothing would be easier. If the gun, the lance and the rope are good to save lives at sea, why not use fireproof ropes to save men from death by fire?—Chicago Globe.

Spoiling the Administration Building.

The beauty of the Administration building rotunda is being marred slowly but surely. First came a guidebook stand; then cigar and tobacco showcases obtained a footing, and last, but not least, is the alleged model of the treasury building at Washington, which is being constructed of pino, blue cheese cloth and Columbian half dollars.

The wooden base on which the coins are being glued is extremely inartistic itself, but the man who made it evidently failed to take into consideration the size of the half dollars, and the coins are being cut into all sorts of shapes and defaced in every conceivable manner to make them fit and hide the lumber.

There are 340 windows in the thing, and each window represents at least five mutilated coins, entailing a loss of $1,700. To make all the edges and corners of the porticoes, verandas and cornices straight will necessitate the spoiling of 2,000 more coins.

The whole thing, from the coarse iron fence to the tin window frames, is an eyesore, and none is quicker to recognize this fact than the visitors from the country, for whose delectation the thing is being built.—Chicago Tribune.

Reunited After Twenty-one Years.

After a separation lasting 21 years, John H. Morrison and his wife have been reunited. In 1865 Squire Morrison wedded Miss Fry in York county and five years later came here to reside. He remained here for two years, and, meeting business reverses, went west, leaving his wife and four daughters here, and nothing was heard of him until last March, when an advertisement for a wife appeared in a Harrisburg paper signed John H. Morrison. It was seen by one of his daughters. She answered it.

Morrison received 617 answers to his advertisement, but replied only to the one written by his daughter. In the correspondence that followed their relationship was disclosed, and when he learned his wife was still living he made arrangements to take her to his western home. A letter received states that they recognized each other on sight at the railway station in Oklahoma.—Lancaster

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a Dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

☞ Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 6 for $2.50.

True Love Side Tracked by an Orange.

A young lady said the other day that she hated oranges because one had come between her and her lover. He had called on her one evening, and after sitting awhile had produced a couple of bright Florida oranges out of his pocket and suggested that each eat one. She now says that she cannot drive out of her mind the sight of his nose, cheeks and chin dripping with juice, and he has been whispering something horribly similar about her. Evidently you cannot love a girl and a citrus aurantium at the same time.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Reading a Law.

When Ben Butler was a young lawyer the selectmen of Lowell, then a town, issued a mandate that all dogs should wear muzzles. The next morning Ben walked down town, followed by his big Newfoundland dog, with a very small muzzle tied to the end of its tail. Ben remarked, "My dog is wearing a muzzle." A callow imitator of Ben living in Ward One has fastened a bicycle bell under his saddle and anticipates much fun when a bluecoat stops him because he has no bell on his "bike."—Springfield Homestead.

Altogether Too Familiar.

Dr. A. T. Pierson, in some pithy, practical hints on pulpit oratory, says that to be winning is to be wise, but it must not be overdone. He has a friend, an evangelist, who got into the habit of calling his audience "dear souls." Inadvertently he would say as he passed from place to place, "Dear Belfast souls," "Dear Dublin souls"—and before he knew it he was saying, "Dear Cork souls," which convulsed his Irish audience.—London Tit-Bits.

The Southern Slouch Hat.

The southerner at home is prone to neglect his headgear for the occasion, being his feet well shod and he is apt to appear about in public places wearing a battered and soiled slouch hat, but scrupulously neat as to his footwear. This peculiarity perhaps arises from family pride, a besetting southern characteristic, with the belief that aristocracy is evinced in the shape and size of the feet. It is worthy of note, however, that the southern slouch hat is often a costly article of the finest and most durable felt. Such a hat for winter and a costly and indestructible Panama straw for summer are the proper headgear for a southern country gentleman.—Chicago Herald.

Wrinkles, and hollow cheeks, and dull sunken eyes, don't always mean that a woman's old. Half the time, they only show that she's overworked or suffering. To such women, to every Woman who is tired or afflicted, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription safely and certainly brings back health and strength. It's a legitimate medicine that corrects and cures; a tonic that invigorates and builds up; a nervine, soothes and strengthens. For all the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure you have your money back.

It wont do to experiment with catarrh. There's the constant danger of driving it to the lungs. You can't have a perfect and permanent cure with Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy.

Of the Town of Reno, Washoe County, Nevada.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND TOWN ORdinance No. 36, of the town of Reno, entitled, "An ordinance to fix and collect a license tax upon certain trades and business in the town of Reno, Nevada." Adopted March 1st, 1893.

Dial clock indicates the time each race starts.

Thirty minutes between races.

Signals—Bell call denotes to saddle. Bugle calls the horses to post.

The bugle call will be precisely five minutes after the saddle call.

Owners, trainers, jockeys or others having care of the animal, that do not send the horse out promptly at post signal will be fined.

Nominations to all stakes must be made to the Secretary on or before the 1st day of September, 1893.

Entries for the running purses must be made two days preceding the race, before 6 o'clock P. M.

Those who have nominated in stakes must name to the Secretary in writing which they will start the day before the race at 6 P. M.

Horses entered in purses can only be drawn by consent of the judges.

In making entries for purse races, the name, age and sex of the horse, and the weight and colors of the rider must be given. After a horse has run once at the meeting, the name of the horse, with the weight to be carried at the race is sufficient.

In purses and stakes, three horses of different interests to enter and start or the race may be declared off by the executive committee.

In all free for all running races, except handicaps, and where other stipulated conditions do not conflict with this rule, all horses that have not won before September 1st, will be allowed ten pounds, and all horses that have won prior to September 1st shall carry five pounds over scale weight.

Ten per cent. entrance to all races unless the conditions otherwise stipulate, and must be paid prior to weighing the jockey out.

Where there is more than one entry by one person, or in one interest, the particular horse they are to start must be named by 6 P. M. of the day preceding the race.

No added money paid for a walk-over.

Entries to all Trotting and Pacing races close September 1st with the Secretary.

All Trotting and Pacing purses divided at the rate of 60, 30 and 10 per cent.

All Trotting and Pacing races are the best three in five, unless otherwise specified; five or more to enter and three or more to start, but the Board reserves the right to hold a less number than five to fill, by the withdrawal of a proportionate amount of the purse, which shall be divided pro rata.

In all two in three races horses not winning one heat in two must go to the stable; and in all three in five races horses not winning one heat in three must go to the stable.

The Board reserves the right to trot heats of any two classes alternately if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between heats.

When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows 50% to the first and 33⅓ to the second.

In dividing purses no horse shall receive more than one money.

At the discretion of the Board, and without notice, the entries of any person may be refused.

Every person subscribing to a sweepstake, or entering a horse in a running race, under these conditions, accepts the decision of the Board of Directors on any question relating to a race or racing.

National Trotting Association rules to govern trotting races. Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association rules to govern all running races where they do not conflict with these conditions.
